

LAWFULNESS OF PROCESSING

ADGM Data Controllers must rely upon a valid lawful basis for processing personal data. There are six legal basis for processing in the ADGM Data Protection Regulations.

Consent

Data Subject has provided consent to the processing of their personal data for one or more specific purposes

Contractual Obligation

Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which Data Subject is a party, or in order to take steps at the request of Data Subject prior to entering into a contract

Legal Obligation

Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Data Controller is subject to under applicable law

Vital Interests

Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the Data Subject or of another individual

Public Interests

Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out by a public authority in ADGM's interest

Legitimate Interest

Processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Data Controller
